

It is my understanding that Sinclair Broadcasting plan to request their stations to air a documentary that is unfavorable to one of our Presidential candidates, John Kerry. This does not serve the public interest, especially given the proximity of the election to the planned airing. It looks to me that the FCC needs to be doing a better job of monitoring broadcast media to prevent politically biased initiatives of this nature from taking place.

Thank you.